

The Double Stand Persists!

And that in itself validates the claims made below...

We hear so much about Diversity these days. What is interesting is that when it is presented there is nearly always one group in prominent standing (white Christian America) that needs to enhance itself (so they claim at least) by casting off its ethics, ideals, morals, principles, standards, and values. It seems that the impetus for those touting this “diversity” is for whites to develop a sense of white guilt, curable only by infusing an alien foreign culture into our white European Christian heritage. We are told by the purveyors of “Diversity” that in order to improve our culture and thus our position in the world, we must start by denigrating it by infusing foreign culture into it. We’ve all heard all the buzz words & catch phrases. Something like, “We should all strive to ___: And then the euphemisms for infusion such as: accept, admit, celebrate, embrace, include, recognize, understand, etc. are plugged in. And the touchy-feely “I want to buy the world a Coke” emotions & sentiments take over the discussion. Those who dare to defend, guard, protect, shield, secure, or uphold the position of whites are vilified. These elitist brokers of diversity then begin to show what diversity really means. And, that is whites have to surrender some portion of their station. If not, then the forces of the Diversity Gestapo quickly swing into action with the specific goal of making white Christians look, callous, evil, heartless, and uncaring, etc. to the needs of others.

There is a hatred of white culture, a jealousy for all that we have accomplished. When one looks at the history of the world, it has been dominated by the history of the white race. This is not evil, it is our culture, and in white nations it is the history of that nation. We see groups espousing black pride, brown pride, red pride, yellow pride, and even gay pride. But, when one group substitutes the word “white” in place of the other sanctioned groups the love-festival of “diversity” comes to a screeching halt, and the “diversity storm troopers” march in. When the Eskimos, Indians, or tribes of South America or Indonesian natives want to preserve their culture against total assimilation the world sighs a collective “Oh, how terrible for them, their culture is about to be eradicated.” And yes, The Knights Party agrees it is! It’s not about hatred of other, but us loving our own people. However, when one race speaks out against race mixing in order to preserve it’s own racial identity, or demand that the treasonous politicians (that continually refuse to) enforce their own immigration laws against a foreign invasion; a “cultural & economic blitzkrieg” by criminals, they; the true patriots are the ones vilified.

The double standard persists! All groups are encouraged to act on their own behalf, have pride in their ancestry, racial heritage, ethnic triumphs, engineer marvels, but only one group of people are consistently belittled & discourage, disparaged & libeled, and often times illegally prohibited from acting in their own behalf. Only when they win suits in court are they allowed the freedoms lavished upon and promoted to other races. Millions of white Americans have asked themselves: Where is White Entertainment Television? Where is the Miss White America? Where is White History Month? Where are the “White Cultural Centers” on “Historically White College” campuses? And where is the United Caucasian College Fund? In Congress and state legislatures, where is the “White Caucus?” The irony of “the diversity movement” is that the actual promoters (Marxists-Elitists), and not so much the rank-and-file do-gooders, are vehemently anti-white. Their ideal society is one where everyone is amalgamated into one mixed “mocha” race speaking one non-white language that is a mix between “Mexican” (not true Spanish) and crotch grabbing-Ebonics, a la, MTV. “Yo! Got it Hommie?” We, The Knights Party, asks where is the diversity in everyone speaking the same, being the same color, or slightly varying shades of brown? Isn’t it hypocritical to encourage everyone to “celebrate their differences” but yet promote the eradication of these unique groups by race-mixing? We, and most Americans think so. Their slogan for whites should be: “Diversity, It’s to Die for!” It doesn’t sound far-fetched when you consider the following: Traditional white symbols are being designated as notorious, evil, and cited for eventual removal from society.

This is “Ethnic Cleansing”, of white cultural icons from American society. The Confederate flag and monuments in the south are being removed. One University actually considered changing their Revolutionary War mascot, the Minuteman, to something else because it was, “... too masculine, too white, and too violent.” Then the WWII display of the plane Enola Gay that dropped the atomic bomb on Japan in the Smithsonian Institute in the early ‘90’s was allowed to be displayed but with the statement to the effect that U.S. dropped the bomb on Japan because they were Asian and we were white. (It was removed after public outcry, but the insolence of the elitists to even try to foster “white guilt” is undeniable.) In Boston, city officials are encouraging whites to NOT display the shamrock when celebrating St. Patrick’s Day because non-white citizens may be “offended” by it. Even the famous photo of the three firemen raising the U.S. flag in the rubble of the World Trade Center has been digitally re-colored to make the photo look as if it were a white, negro, and non-white Hispanic. You know there is a double-standard!

Who dares to speak out about this Double Standard That Persists?

Certainly NOT either of the two major political parties! They both encourage it! And if you have been duped into voting Republican thinking that they are the party that represents whites, then ask yourself why Republican Presidential candidate Bob Dole Sponsored the MLK Holiday Bill? Ask yourself, “Why the Republicans as well as Democrats are courting the non-white Hispanic vote of millions of illegal aliens that THEIR refusal to enforce our immigration policies have them allowed in?” “Why are the Republicans and their President pushing so hard to give amnesty to these invaders assaulting our county?” It is because they are every bit as treasonous as the Democrats? You bet it is! Friends, together the two parties are practicing “good cop / bad cop” on American Citizens! Whereas,...
