

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s Legacy of Hate Lives On

In 1968, a democrat introduced legislation asking for a federal holiday in recognition of the birthday of black agitator Martin Luther King, Jr. In 1983, congress passed, and Ronald Reagan, the "great" conservative republican signed into law, a national holiday celebrating the birthday of a well known communist. Now, schools and government offices from the east coast to the west coast close to commemorate what we are told is an important day.

We couldn't agree more that this holiday is an important one. This holiday is used as the central theme of classroom educators during the months of February. Unfortunately, groups and lectures leave the ideas that are contrary to

The importance of the understated. It gives other Marxist adherents of including Rosa Parks, Myles Rowan. School children dreams would believe that America would have a communist. Therefore, the was a true patriot and man of respect and admiration.

The debate as to the Luther King Jr. continues. On Scott King obtained a federal pages of FBI records about years "because its release reputation!" Many people important information within should be made available to the public. The court says the file is of little importance, yet others claim that if that is indeed true, why withhold the information from the public. It is regrettable that the same standards of decency are not prevalent today. The continuing popularity of former president Bill Clinton despite his unrepentant sexual offenses shows a clear downward trend of morality. If the King files were opened today in 2008, would there be outrage at the anti-white, anti-women, and anti-American behavior and statements?

The importance of the holiday is all too real for millions of whites. Whether it's the white boy or girl in school who learns to hate their heritage or is punished for speaking out in defense of it to the family torn apart by black on white violence, or the acceptance of black culture and its dampening effect on society at large - the Martin Luther King Jr. Holiday is an integral part. Even the justice system has not remain untainted as evidenced by the insane black

No one can charge Lincoln with hatred for the black race or any other, but he knew God had planned for every people to live in harmony among their own. Who dares to compromise God's worldwide rainbow of diversity by the engineered amalgamation of the world mosaic?

"I have no purpose to introduce political and social equality between the white and black races. There is a difference between the two, which, in my judgment, will forever forbid their living together in perfect equality" Abraham Lincoln 1857 - consensus that white jurors are inherently unfair as is claimed in the high profile Jena, Louisiana case and the Christa Worthington murder. At the same time, the prisons have become revolving doors for non-whites who claim to be suffering from too much justice and then there are whites who claim there is not enough law and order.

There is but one group of people who are benefiting from the “Dream” of King. Congressman Buchanan, speaking before the House, suggested who benefited from King’s assassination: "The hand that gunned down Martin Luther King served the world Communist cause well, and no other cause I know". Certainly, the people who hold those Communist/Socialist/ one world order/beliefs did benefit from Kings death by the acceptance of their views by more people in society.

Upon the death of King, Henry Winston, National Chairman of the Communist Party, USA led a six men delegation to the funeral of King. The Soviet Union sent messages of sympathy as well. Memorial meetings took place all over the Soviet Union: factories, halls, and theaters – even Moscow University. Waldeck Rochet, general secretary of the French Communist Party sent his regards and Poland’s Communist paper the Worker sent condolences to Corretta King. William Patterson, secretary of the Negro Department of the Communist Party, USA sent a telegram to Coretta King, wishing her the best: "Tonight we will join with all progressive mankind in expressing the deep pain and anguish at the monstrous assassination of your illustrious husband." Also in the Worker along with the article about the telegram was an article entitled, "Dr. King’s Legacy – 'FULFILL IT! COMMUNISTS DEMAND.' What was it they wish to fulfill? The New York Post of July 1, 1958 interviewed King whom stated: "I’m sure that integration will lead to intermarriage." William Z. Foster head of the Communist Party in the 1940’s stated in his book, Toward a Soviet America, "The American Soviet will, of course, abolish all restrictions upon racial intermarriage... The revolution will only hasten this process of integration."

Will the nightmare of King continue? Though he served as a mere puppet at the time, his memory is held sacred, his files kept sealed even to the media, and his anti-Christian and anti-American views are taught as cherished principles without question. The legacy of King lives on in the continued destruction of the Constitution and the white children of the republic! There is hope, however!
