Information for YOU!

As the Euthanasia craze catches on in more and more circles of medical professionals, we better seriously start reconsidering our position on abortion – the predecessor of the Euthanasia movement.

Many countries and now the U.S. are allowing voters to choose whether to legalize doctor-assisted suicide. Many are unaware that it is already legal in Oregon, and taxpayers via the Medicaid department will even pay for it! Leaders in the racist movement and especially Pastor Robb have been saying for years that the legalization of

The Bible commands us to respect and to heed their insight and wisdom. There is not a time when people cease to become valuable with age. They continue to bring us important lessons that are equally applicable to our lives today and provide a link between past generations and future generations.

“mercy killing” would become a reality in our lifetime. We just didn’t know how soon. Some in the extreme far left of academia such as Professor Singer of Harvard are even encouraging Euthanasia for the disabled and unwanted infants – unbelievable – but true!

Will we soon face a “death lottery” for the sake of population control? One thing is certain as our children are being taught to hate Christianity in schools-the compassion of future generations may be slim.

The day is fast approaching when families will gather to be with their loved one as a “caring” doctor helps them end their “useless” life. Society will view it as humane and the elderly will feel like a burden if they don’t comply. How sad for our people when they lose their natural compassion and begin to question God’s purpose for our lives even in the face of adversity, sickness, old age, or disability.
