The Change

The recent re-election of Barack Obama as president of the United States has caused much alarm among our people. Not only has it caused alarm among many white Patriots but it has caused considerable alarm among Conservatives in general. It seems they weren't prepared for what has happened. In their

This front page story from the July 1988 issue of Nation's Business, plainly told us the change was coming. The article states, "White males . . . Will make up only 15% of the net additions to the labor force between 1985 and 2000." Did you know that?

would have only been a short term relief, because the demographics are changing every day. The numbers against us keep rising and the numbers for us keep decreasing. All the statistics have been telling us for years that white people would become the minority by 2050. But even that was giving us too much time and now the date we will become a minority in the country built by our forefathers is 2042. Others are projecting that it will happen much sooner. In order for Romney to have won the election, it would have required him to win 74% of the white vote. And in 2016 if a white heads, Obama was going to be defeated - easily! They would see the polls, look at the massive Tea Party type rallies and were certain that with all this anger, Obama was going to be a one termer. So when Obama won, they did in their pants what babies do in their diapers.

Those of us who have spent years sounding this message of White Christian Revival weren't surprised in anyway. It is exactly what we have been warning the people about.

Even if Romney won, it

Christian - and I emphasize CHRISTIAN - is to be elected, it will require winning 75 or 76% of the white vote.

It is unlikely that this percentage will ever be reached by a white Christian Conservative candidate.

The election of a Hillary Clinton for example, though white, does not represent White Christian traditional values. Also keep in mind that many whites, though classified as white, are spiritually non-white. That is, they are involved in an interracial relationship and therefore actually identify with non whites. There are also many "whites" who have adopted nonwhite children, so these also have gone over to the dark side. So numerically white people are still a slight majority, however those who have a spiritual connection with their white ancestry are already a minority.

Many conservatives felt that Romney was a weak candidate in the same category as John McCain. They tell us he was not a true conservative and was not as aggressive as he could and should have been. I am not sure it would have made any difference. They don't seem to understand that the statement by the late Massachusetts Congressman Tip O'Neil (D-1953-1987). "All politics is local!" is no longer true. We have entered an age when all politics is racial. As well as it should be. What the minorities did in their massive coalition against us is basic in racial survival. What this election has done is to help many white people to begin figuring out the same thing. They are certainly a long way from being where they need to be, but at least for some the harsh reality is starting to sink in. Those of us who have been in this struggle for many years do not look at this as the setting of the sun but the rising of a new dawn.

January 2009, The Atlantic magazine boasted - The End of White America - Election day, 2012 was a reminder.

Even though Romney was a weak candidate, he was still the white candidate and won the majority of the White vote, just as Obama won the majority of the non-white vote. Because of this Republican loss, there are those in the Republican Party who are suggesting that the party needs to reach out to “minorities” with greater enthusiasm and perhaps even back away from social issues. I do expect to see a real solid attempt to attract a greater numbers of “minorities” with a “White people be damned” attitude. But I do not think it will abandon social issues in 2016. It appears that most conservatives are still under the illusion that with the “right” candidate they will crack the non-white barrier and bring millions of non-whites into the cause.

I suspect in 2016 the Republican Party will nominate an aggressive, social conservative, (perhaps even a Bobby Jindal or a Mark Rubio) to lead the ticket. Party bosses will believe that their staunch conservative credentials will bring about a Republican victory and America will be saved.

Of course the trouble with both of these candidates is that Jindal is not white and Rubio - a white Cuban - thinks he’s not white. Both of these men and numerous others that could be named will simply continue the foolish notion that anyone can become an American, by simply stepping over an invisible line (border) in the earth.

Racial demographics is the key to all future elections. This statement from NBC is certainly most revealing In an online article, titled, Obama's Demographic Edge!, by NBC's Chuck Todd, Mark Murray, Domenico Montanaro, and Brooke Brower, stated:

“Yes, the auto bailout mattered in Ohio. Sure, Hurricane Sandy helped the president. And, yes, the economy was the No. 1 issue. But make no mistake: What happened last night was a demographic time bomb that had been ticking and that blew up in GOP faces. As the Obama campaign had assumed more than a year ago, the white portion of the electorate dropped to 72%, and the president won just 39% of that vote. But he carried a whopping 93% of black voters, 71% of Latinos, and also 73% of Asians.”

As long as a candidate (regardless of color) appears to be trumpeting the values and policies of white people, they will lose the election because racial demographics is now the dictator of elections.

The 2016 elections will produce an aggressive Conservative candidate - but he will still lose, because there is simply too many of them and not enough of us! When that happens the Republican Party as a voice for White Christian Conservatives will cease to exist. Now I am aware that the Republican Party hasn’t been the voice for White Christian Conservatives in many years (if it ever was), but it has maintained the appearance that it was. And that is the point I am making. The Republican Party, as we know it, will cease. At that time it will either morph into another version of the Democratic (Socialist) Party or it will simply collapse.

I realize that it seems like I am saying that there is no hope for the country. That is exactly what I am saying. The Republic is dead! Perhaps it has been dead for many years, but as a result of the election of November 6th, 2012 even a blind man can see that the Republic is dead. As an added witness to this statement, on the night of November 6, Bill O’Rielly stated on FOX news, ““The White establishment is now the minority.””

We knew this date was coming. The non-white demographic clock has been ticking away ever since the passage of the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1965 which opened our immigration doors to a massive flood from Asia, South America, Africa, Middle East, India and the Pacific Islands. I am only surprised that so many people were surprised.

It isn’t that we haven’t been warning them. There has been many over the years warning our people that they need to awaken to the enemy at their door. But even if we didn’t warn them, it was general knowledge even in the establishment media. They haven’t hid this decline of the white population. Here is article from the April 9, 1990 edition of Time Magazine. Note this was not hidden in the back page of the magazine. THIS WAS THEIR COVER STORY. The title of this article was actually, Beyond the Melting Pot and the first paragraph says, “In the 21st century . . . Racial and ethnic groups in the U.S. will outnumber whites for the first time. The ‘browning of America’ will alter everything in society, from politics and education to industry, values and culture.”

Did you vote for this change? Or was this change forced on you? Never-the less, this should have been enough to awaken our people to action. The Bible tells us, "While men slept, an enemy came in unawares."

But it doesn't matter. It really isn't the country we have been attempting to preserve anyway - but rather what George Washington called, "our dearest liberties!" This Republic which we called the United States of America was only the reflection of those noble ideals resting in the hearts of our people created for the purpose of preserving those "dearest liberties." The country has now betrayed those dearest liberties. However, those noble ideals of liberty are still alive and vibrant in my heart and soul as it is in the heart and soul of millions of our people.

It is important for you to understand that the nation was never the country. Our nation are those who belong to our racial family. This country, was at one time a reflection of our nation. But now our country is a mongrel mess. And our nation, which lives in this country still has a battle equal to that of our founding fathers. The battle to wrestle liberty from the chains of tyranny is a battle that has been fought many times over the centuries. It is a battle to be fought once again.

I know I could sing platitudes to you and put on my papa smurf cap and tell you, as I would a child, "You just had a bad dream, you can go back to sleep now, everything is going to be OK."

But if I did that - I would be lying to you.

I'll bet General George Armstrong Custer wished someone had been a little more truthful to him.

Everything is NOT going to be OK!

And you better not go back sleep!

In March of 2010, Time Magazine had an article titled The White Anxiety Crisis. This article supports the same conclusion we have been saying for many years. There is a new white homeland being established in the mid west - the heartland of America. It is what many call, "Fly over country." Fly Over Country is that part of the nation which the big shots in government and Hollywood fly over between New York/Washington DC to Los Angeles, San Francisco etc. According to this article there is a migration of White people to the heartland of America.

While America will be majority non-white in the year 2042 (or earlier) the majority of those "minorities" will be in the coastal states and along our southern border. In the mid west, according to the Times article a new white conscienceness will arise.

I am pretty sure that if you go to resist.com/CWII.pdf there is an excellent book online titled Civil War 2. The book is no longer being published, but fortunately it is online and I would strongly suggest you take time to read it.

DO IT!

I know reading online is more difficult then reading a real book or magazine, but in my opinion this book is THAT important! You could print the book off on your printer, or perhaps you can find it on some used book sites, but it will probably be expensive.

I don't want to discourage you, but these are the times in which we live. When the trail master told the settlers, "Circle the wagons!," no one thought he was being negative. They just knew - it was time to circle the wagons.

I wish I could say "Let's all work hard and support the Grand Old Party and in four years we'll take back control of the White House." But that isn't going to happen. There are more of them then there are of us!

You must recall that the voice for independence from England was sounding forth for many years before it became a reality on July 4, 1776. Likewise, this battle for "our dearest liberties" will not be easily or quickly won. But it will be won!

God has not granted me the ability to see visions and I cannot tell you what will happen tomorrow or in the days to follow, but I do know that our people have never backed away from a challenge and we have never been defeated by the aliens. In fact upon every island, in every land and on every quarter of the earth where we placed our feet - we conquered. You and I belong to a race that has a history of conquest. While the aliens are great in number - they are not great in strength. While they are great in number - they are not great in courage and while they are great in number - they are not great in the Lord. For God has dealt with our nation as he has not dealt with any other nation and "as for his judgments, they have not known them. Praise ye the LORD," Psa 147:19-20.

If we could look at the miracles enjoyed by our nation at the founding of the Republic we would be encouraged with greater strength for the challenge we face today.

The End of Time?

I was walking through the grocery store the other day and “bumped” into a friend I haven’t seen in perhaps 2 or 3 years. He is a nice fellow, perhaps in his early 70’s. Over the years I have given him things to read, although there has never been a positive response. Actually there has never been a negative response. Like most people, he just doesn’t seem to express any concern. He does complain about the sickness of the world and he wasn’t happy that Obama is still the undisputed leader of the Free World. (Ok, that last sentence was kindava joke.) But after his few moments of despair, he brushed it all aside by simply stating, “Well, the Bible says the last days would be evil.” And with that he went and picked up a package of chicken legs for his Sunday dinner.

I was once again grievously reminded of the apathy upon our people. People will generally mock Nero who “fiddled” while Rome burned and then do exactly the same when facing this national calamity. And it’s all ignored in the name of Christianity. “Nothing we can do about it, It’s the end time. The Bible said it would get bad so don’t get overly concerned. It’s just the way it’s suppose to be ‘cause the Bible says so . . . Give me another helpin of them taters”

The Republic died in one generation and calamity is upon us, all-the-while the vast majority of Christian people “fiddle” the hours away as America plunges into darkness.

That is the reason this voice in the wilderness - promoted and broadcast by publication, internet, DVD’s, partners (such as yourselves) and media exposure is so vital. If you will write and ASK BY NAME for either CD or DVD of God Blesses the Wicked! I will send you TWO copies. One for you and one for a friend. It will show you the simple step to national recovery. Thank you for your friendship and faithful support.
