America’s Mental Illness

By Pastor Thomas Robb

America is suffering from a severe mental illness. This is not just a slam against the current political, social and religious culture of America, but it is a very real clinical observation. America has a sickness that has infected our national political, social and religious institutions. America is no longer a healthy nation.

Most Christian/Conservative Americans are aware that America has a very real physical sickness. We see this in our national economy, our moral corruption, our spiraling debt crisis and the growth of the entitlement culture. It can also be seen in the growth of a bully national government that no longer values the wisdom of our founders. But America also has a mental illness.

Actually there are two mental disorders that plague America. The first mental disorder is called: Narcissistic Personality Disorder (NPD). Here is the clinical definition of this mental illness.

“Narcissistic personality disorder is a personality disorder in which the individual is described as being excessively preoccupied with issues of personal adequacy, power, prestige and vanity.”

Usually we simply call these people elitists. It is people who think only their ideas, opinions and conclusions have any value. People with this disorder are usually just annoying until they become politicians.

This condition, is closely related to Megalomania, “a psychopathological disorder characterized by delusional fantasies of power, relevance, or omnipotence. Megalomania is characterized by an inflated sense of self-esteem and overestimation by persons of their powers and beliefs.”

Politicians with this disorder become tyrannical in their quest for power and form bully governments that tramples on the liberties which we recognize to be God-given and unalienable.

Obama is a perfect example of this. Liberals, who are prone to favor big government are suffering from NPD (Narcissistic Personality Disorder).

An artists interpretation of a person with multiple personality disorder.

Another mental illness facing America is called Dissociative Identity Disorder (DID), also known as Multiple Personality Disorder (MPD),

There is disagreement as to what constitutes a solid case of DID. Some have argued that even the simple act of daydreaming constitutes DID, though admittedly harmless. But a severe case of DID would cause a person to lose touch with reality through their varied forms of personality identification.

In other words, a person's touch with reality has so completely evaporated that they no longer know who they are.

Here is a poem I wrote a few years ago for a sermon titled: Who Am I?

Who am I
I really need to know
Am I Jim or am I Jerry
Or am I Mo or Joe
My identity is quite confusing
To all who come my way
Am I John or am I Tom
Or am I Jay or Tray
My life is complicated
I change from day to day
And while you try to make John happy
You forget that today I'm Jay
Joe he is a plumber
And Jim plays in a band
I try to live out each life in me
But no one can understand
My multi-personality will keep you guessing who I am
Cause today I'm none of the above
Today my name is Sam

This national mental sickness, this Dissociative Identity Disorder leaves us without a unified identity.

Diversity is not our strength - diversity is our weakness. Diversity is a code word for white genocide!

The Bible tells us that a "double minded man is unstable in all his ways," James 1:8.

Here is the clinical definition of DID.

"Dissociative identity disorder (DID), also known as multiple personality disorder (MPD), is a mental disorder characterized by at least two distinct and relatively enduring identities or dissociated personality states that alternately control a person's behavior, and is accompanied by memory impairment for important information not explained by ordinary forgetfulness."

This is the condition that is now upon America. Up until recent years we had a clear understanding of exactly who we were. No one doubted that we were a White (European) Christian country. Everyone understood that. Unfortunately, since the mid 60's we have been producing a citizenry which has become disconnected from its history. For that reason, this statement today, seem radical and extreme to multiplied millions of Americans. But it is still the truth. This understanding that we were a White (European) Christian country means simply that we had a White (European) Christian personality. People who had a different "personality" were free to live here under our constitutional protections, however it was understood that they could not interfere with our White (European) Christian personality. Even the millions of Negroes living in America, adopted our personality because of our dominance. The same can be said of the tiny handful of Asians who lived here. Those who were not of our people certainly enjoyed their cultural and racial ideals and customs among themselves. But the COUNTRY was White AND Christian.

However, when we changed our immigration laws in 1965, we began to bring aliens into our country who have a different personality. As their numbers grew, different racial groups began to demand we accept their personality as part of our national character. And if we didn't accept their personality than we were racist and in violation of the law. As a result our national character attempts to embrace a Mexican personality, a White (European) personality, a Negro personality, an Asian personality etc. The American personality has become fragmented. We don't know who we are. Everyone is looking over their shoulder not sure who they may be offending. And "offended" groups will sue in federal court if they are offended. And while all this is happening some moron is telling us that "Diversity is our Strength!"

Diversity is not our strength
- diversity is our weakness!
Diversity is a code word for White Genocide!

Because of the millions of racial aliens which have been brought into America along with their strange and aliens gods, morals and values, we no longer know who we are or what we are.

And this confusion of who we are has created instability in every area of American life.

On June 28, 2006, Obama said, "Whatever we once were, we are no longer a Christian nation – at least, not just. We are also a Jewish nation, a Muslim nation, a Buddhist nation, and a Hindu nation, and a nation of nonbelievers."

Because of this attempt to create an artificial identity our people are confused. We are a nation suffering from Dissociative Identity Disorder. This is precisely what has happened to America. Other white nations suffer from DID also. For example: In Sweden there is an organization called Paideia which is a branch of The European Institute for Jewish Studies.

This group is headed by an American Jewess named Barbara Spectre, who has immigrated to Sweden and receives financial support from the Wallenberg Foundation and the Swedish government. The purpose of Spectre and the Paideia organization is to encourage immigration from Africa, Asia and the middle east into Sweden.

Here is what she has recently said.

"There is an resurgence of anti-Semitism because Europe has not yet learned how to be multi-cultural. And we are going to be part of that transformation -- which MUST take place.

"Europe is not going to be the monolithic societies that they once were in the last century. Jews are going to be at the center of that. It's a huge transformation for Europe to make. Europe is now going into a multi-cultural mode. And Jews will be resented because of our leading role. But without that leading role and without that transformation, Europe will not survive."

It is amazing that this Jewess can make such an absurd statement about the survival of Europe depending on the destruction of the European people through miscegenation. And though it is amazing and absurd it is exactly what they intend to do to not only Europe but America as well.

When the racial demographics change - the culture changes. I know this statement is too simple for some people and they will pick it apart. But the core of the statement is correct. A nation which attempts to be multi-racial is suffering from Dissociative Identity Disorder and will destroy its self! Why? Because Diversity is a code word for White Genocide. Therefore those who promote diversity are promoting White Genocide - even if they are unaware of it. Remember that the next time you hear someone say "Diversity is our Strength!"

Say out loud to yourself, "Diversity is a code word for White Genocide." Then tell your spouse and have all your children repeat it several times. Also, here is another truth, "Anti-racist is a code word for Anti-White."

You must understand that the purpose of diversity isn't just to annihilate our culture - but is designed to annihilate our blood - our people!

Because we have brought into our country millions of people who do not share our faith or our blood we have become an artificial nation without a healthy personality. This mental sickness has left us weak and disconnected.

In 1970 America was 92% white. The largest non white minority was our black population. The population of Asians, Mexicans, Arabs, Filipinos etc. was marginal. Because we were a white country there was no confusion of our national identity. The national origin provisions of our immigration laws kept our racial percentages stable.

At the grade school I attended in the Detroit suburb of St. Clair Shore, Michigan there was a huge heroic picture of Gen George Armstrong Custer at the Battle of Little Big Horn.

Custer was a hero to the young kids who loved to play cowboys and Indians.

General Armstrong Custer at the battle of Little Big Horn. In order to help destroy the reputation of Custer, he has been portrayed as a narcissistic, blowhard who simply got what he deserved. The fact is the "intelligent reports" by his Indian scouts was misleading and the Indians had more modern and efficient rifles than those issued to the 7th Cavalry. The picture above is the one which hung on the wall at Wheat Elementary School in St. Clair Shore, Michigan, 1957.

Perhaps part of the reason this picture graced the wall of our grade school was that Custer was from Monroe, Michigan only 45 miles south of Detroit.

But Custer became the target of anti-white hatred by American Indians because he symbolized America's western expansion known as Manifest Destiny. Manifest Destiny has been so completely demonized by the manipulators of America's educational system that even conservatives like Glenn Beck (who should know better) speak about the evils of Manifest Destiny. Now this great American who was a hero a short 50 years ago has been reintroduced to us as a demon and has been surgically removed from America's icon of heroes. Today his name, image and reputation is relegated to the waste bin of history. A great American hero was taken from us in the name of political correctness and diversity.

Eldridge Cleaver, minister of information for the Black Panther Party, speaks about the phenomena of our lost heroes in his book Soul on Ice.

"What has suddenly happened is that the white race has lost its heroes. Worse, its heroes have been revealed as villains and its greatest heroes as the arch villains."

America's multiple personality disorder has left us disconnected from our forefathers and the vision they created and entrusted to us.

Diversity has not strengthened us but has fractured us. We can hardly make a telephone call without having the anxiety that we may get someone from "who knows where" who we can't understand. I recall as a child we could easily talk to anyone on the other end of the phone, because they spoke clear and distinct English. Every sign was in English and every package of merchandise was in English. And if on a rare occasion, in Detroit, Michigan where I lived as a child, if we did hear a foreign language spoken it was usually by an old German, Polish or perhaps an Italian immigrant.

America was clearly a white country. And though there were immigrants from France, Germany, Russia, Italy or other white European nations, they all shared a common faith and culture. They immigrated from different countries but they had the same spirit. There was no division in our national character.

But because of Dissociative Identity Disorder we are not united but divided. To say Diversity is our strength makes about as much sense as saying division is unity.

The following is a simple example of this foolishness. A number of year ago, I took my family to Washington D.C., while there we went to the Washington Monument. There at the monument was a national parks officer as a tour guide. She was from some Asian country and we could not understand a word she said. We really tried and walked away in frustration.

The purpose of diversity isn't to annihilate our culture, but to annihilate our blood!

Other races have always lived in this country and they were free to assemble, practice and embrace their own cultural and or racial heritage without encumbrment. But there was no mistake in understanding that America was a White Christian nation. America had a strong single personality.

But because of our multiple personality we are told that we can't offend Mexicans, we can't offend Indians, we can't offend Muslims, we can't offend Chinese, we can't offend Japanese, we can't offend Negroes, we can't offend Hindoos, we can't offend Buddhists, we can't offend Arabs, we can't offend gays, and we can't offend Jews. In fact, the only people that we can freely offend are White Christians.

Our school teachers, politicians and preachers are suppose to lead the nation. They are to nourish the nation and they are to lift the nation to greatness, but

Where is the Blessing?

Pastor Robb gives 22 examples of how we have been cursed, not blest, since we began our undivided support for "Israel."

Where is the blessing?

For 63 years we have been the faithful friend and supporter of "Israel." We are told that God will bless us if we bless the Jewish State. But by every moral and financial standard we look at, our nation has plummeted into chaos. Why aren't we being blessed? Our national debt is over $15 trillion. Socialists sit as our leaders in Washington D.C. Homosexuality is being dumped into the heads of our children. Our cities are in turmoil!

Are these the blessings they are talking about?

Where are the Blessings?

Pastor Robb gives 22 examples showing that God is allowing a curse and not a blessing because of our support for this Jewish nation. Get this informative DVD now. they give us nothing but slop. There is no nourishment in their words, there is no nourishment in their counsel and there is no nourishment in their foolishness.

The Bible tells us, (Deut 32:28-29) "For they are a nation void of counsel, neither is there any understanding in them. O that they were wise, that they understood this, that they would consider their latter end!"

Like all sicknesses, this multiple personality disorder is self destructive. We can see it all about us.

Eldridge Cleaver talked about how white kids are being taught to reject the racism of their parents. Now remember what you are about to read was written in 1970. These white kids he is talking about are now in power in the country. They are the teachers, the politicians and the preachers. They are also the "Glenn Becks" espousing shame for the great achievements of his forefathers as they moved across the wilderness of America in the great Western expansion of Manifest Destiny which is reviled by the real Glenn Beck on his radio and television broadcasts.

"The new generation of whites, appalled by . . . The despicable record carved over the face of the globe by their race in the last five hundred years, are rejecting the panoply of white heroes, whose heroism consisted in erecting the inglorious edifice of colonialism and imperialism; heroes whose careers rested on a system of foreign and domestic exploitation, rooted in the myth of white supremacy and the manifest destiny of the white race. The emerging shape of a new world order, and the requisites for survival in such a world, are fostering in young whites a new outlook. They recoil in shame from the spectacle of cowboys and pioneers - their heroic forefathers whose exploits filled earlier generations with pride. . ."

Because of our national embrace of diversity, history is being rewritten to show the "truth" about the "ugliness" of our heroes. The religion of diversity has created a cult following of people who are void of understanding and wisdom and they fail to consider their latter end.

Recently a post was directed toward young people to comment on "What is the color of America" Here are a couple of answers.

"I honestly do not think that America is one specific color. I think that America is more like a beautiful rainbow with many different colors blended together."

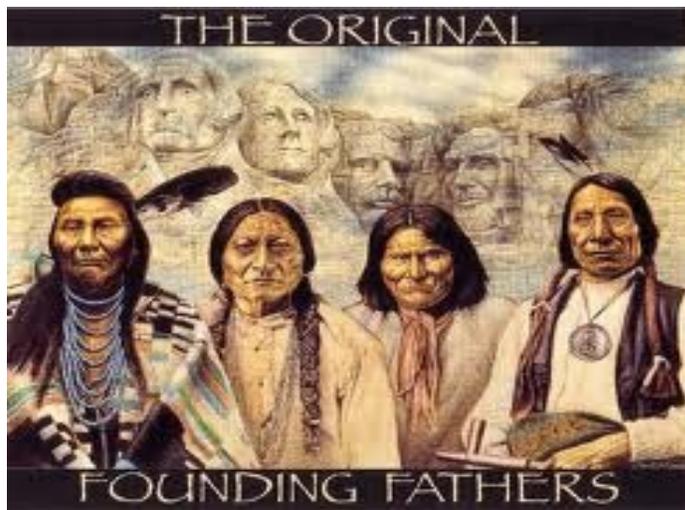

"In my opinion, I believe that the United States of America is lavender. Lavender seems like a pretty outrageous choice I am sure, but when it comes down to it, the color describes what America stands for and believes in. Way back in nursery school, we learn that when red and blue are mixed together, purple is formed. With the adding in of white, we get a light purple or lavender color."

"I do not feel as if America is one color. There are too many cultures and races in America to define one. Though, it had been historically seen as a melting pot America has always taken pride in claiming that it is the land of opportunity where anyone no matter what color, race, religion, or culture can succeed. With that being said, America has been portrayed as a "melting pot"

A nation that lashes out against its heroes will die. Heroes and their exploits are what unites a people and keeps them strong. Young people hear the stories, identify with their heroes and then want to live heroic lives also. Heroes point to the greatness of their people.

But we have been foolish and have scoffed at the names of our heroes and demonized the greatest of them.

An example of our Dissociative Identity Disorder sickness is seen in the painting above which is actually sold at many souvenir shops and at our national monuments.

The painting is clearly offensive to any White American. But no one cares whether we are offended or not. The painting shows Red Cloud, Sitting Bull, Chief Joseph and American Horse.

Our Dissociative Identity Disorder has become so prevalent that not only do we have no idea who we are, we have no idea who we were!

Our foundations have been removed and we are lost! O'Rielly is angered about the growing culture of disrespect in America. However, he and many others fail to understand that our culture changes in proportion to the change in racial demographics. If you want the culture of the old days then we need to become the people of the old days. The old days that O'Rielly wishes would come back were the days he knew as a child when this country was 92% white.

But something happened and very few people saw it coming. Even today, very few people comprehend the magnitude of the storm, the darkness of the clouds and the strength of the whirlwind.

Romans 13:11-12 tells us, “And do this, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep; for now our salvation is nearer than when we first believed. 12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand. Therefore let us cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light.”

Indeed the night is far spent. The sound of the call should be crystal clear. America is sick and we have the answer for her healing

Luke tells us that at one point the disciples went forth and preached the Gospel to all those that would listen. Luke 9:6 says, “So they departed and went through the towns, preaching the gospel and healing everywhere.”

The disciples went forth and brought healing to the people. We must be reminded that this same Jesus that restored sight to the blind, opened the ears of the deaf and made the cripple to walk again, can also heal our broken nation. END

A Message from:

Jason Robb, Thomas Robb

August 23 is the target date to begin classes for the Soldiers of the Cross Training Institute. All the instructors (Paul Fromm, Dr. Tomislav Sunic, Billy Roper, Rachel Pendergraft, Jason Robb and Thomas Robb) are working very hard to insure that each student gets as much information packed into this 7 day session as possible.

These classes will cover the following areas of study:

- 1) America's Changing Political climate
- 2) Balkanization (building a pathway for a new nation)
- 3) Community leadership
- 4) Building a new nation on historic principles
- 5) Communication methodology
- 6) Participation and recruitment at many levels
- 7) Protecting and developing yourself -- financial guidelines
- 8) Changing concepts and how they affect our political struggle.
- 9) The need of traditional values in building a new nation
- 10) Establishing white conscienceness in a modern society
- 11) Leadership - Activist leaders and leaders within the system.
- 12) Projecting image
- 13) What is propaganda and how to use it effectively.

There is going to be so much intensified education and information packed into these seven days we are afraid someone's head is gong to explode.

Here is the mission statement for the school.

To give young men and women the tools they need
To become leaders in their community.
To be a spokesperson for our folk.
To inspire their neighbors.
To build the power of influence!

We initially are looking for 8 students. Bear in mind this is not a conference. This will not be just another have the greatest impact on reclaiming our racial heritage.

If you are thinking that you are not called to be a "leader" then it may be possible that you misunderstand the concept of what this school is all about. We are focusing not on the power of leadership but on the power of influence.

We are requesting a $500 tuition fee for the complete course. This tuition fee will also cover room and board for the 7 days. We consider the amount quite reasonable considering many if not most patriotic conferences cost $100 or more for just one or two days.

Billy Roper

We also want you to understand the concept of the mission statement. The last line is to "build the power of influence."

It is our desire to convey to each student that it is this "power of influence" that can

And that doesn't even cover room or board. This is SEVEN DAYS of training and covers both room and board.

We have gone to great length to put this school together. We are all committed to insure that each student will receive the very best instruction possible so they can return to their communities with the knowledge needed to build the power of influence.

If you are a young man or woman that is wanting to see a revival of our racial spirit then this is the place you need to be come August 23. If you are a law student, a business student you need to be here. If you are a young man or woman that is already establishing yourself in your community in a professional capacity, you need to come and open up your vision of how you can be a person of influence to help effect White Christian Revival.

All students will be attending this school under complete anonymity. There will be no publishing of names etc. We want you to return to your community and use your power of influence to effect change.

We will do our best to provide scholarships to worthy students according to available funds. Those of you who are able to provide a scholarship for a worthy student or who can financially help grow this school are encouraged to contact us with your gift. This is a big undertaking and we appreciate your participation. END

Judaism - Communism And Counterfeit Patriarchy

By Rachel Pendergraft

Ever since the beginning of Adam and Eve there have been counterfeits. Through deception, mankind has been inundated by counterfeits. There have been religious systems that closely resemble Christianity. There have been governments that closely resemble the righteous legal system of God codified by Moses. We are even told there will be a counterfeit church and anti-Christ. We are commanded to search out all matters, beware of Jewish fables (Titus 1:14), and not be deceived.

Biblical patriarchy is a system whereby the fathers or patriarchs are given the responsibility to provide for, protect, and love his family. To enable him to do this, certain rights and authority are bestowed upon him. Likewise, the woman is to manage what is provided to the betterment of the family, to assist in the protection of the family, and to love her family. She is provided with certain rights to enable her to do this. Both are limited in their authority as a means to safeguard against the carnal mind and acts of selfishness that would harm the family. True patriarchy is centered around the family, not around one man and his desires.

The enemies of God have always sought to destroy what He has created. Counterfeit patriarchy has caused enormous harm throughout the ages. Rather than putting the family first, many men have used the family and its enlarged system of community, government, and nation as a tool to further their own selfish desires.

Prior to the time of Christ the Roman paterfamilias could murder a member of his family with the same impunity as if he had simply killed an animal. Fathers could sell their children or wife. Unwanted babies could be left out to die. The family existed for the father. The community existed for the men in charge. Responsibility was taken out of the equation.

Long before Rome, the law of Moses sought to correct this injustice. The Traditions of the Elders that the apostles and Christ fought bitterly against was a counterfeit to the Law of Moses. The Oral Law (Traditions) of the Rabbis was a corruption of God's Law and it held the people in bondage. The Oral Law today is commonly known as the Babylonian Talmud. It is the ultimate heresy.

Some will make the claim that Judaism is Matriarchal. This is not true. They say this because kinship is reckoned through the mother although in actuality they do not deny community and Jewishness to children who have only a Jewish father. Government within the Jewish religion is not held by women. Women are considered worthless. Women are not allowed to study their law or to speak or recite their law (Traditions of the Elders) The apostle Paul (Note: Paul was an Israelite not Jewish – the two are not related and this is part of the deception) had to fight the infiltration of Jewish ideas into the early church. One example where it regarded women was the Jewish prohibition against women speaking. The Traditions of the Elders forbade it (“Let the law be burned rather it be spoken by a woman”) God's law however, did not. After restating their objection (noted in Corinthians) he asks, “What! came the word of God out from you! or came it unto you only?”

Marxist writings are extensive in their accusations and condemnation of patriarchy. Language and phrases are often used which imply that they have the best interests of the poor, the workers, the downtrodden, women, children, etc. at heart. Thus the world has witnessed the rise of working class revolutions, children's rights movements and the feminist movement. These are tools counterfeit patriarchy uses to destroy true Biblical patriarchy. However, these movements have been successful because they are built upon legitimate concerns and reactions to counterfeit patriarchy Carnal minded men do not want to eat by the sweat of their brow. They do not want to till the soil. They do not want to be responsible for the love, care, and protection of their family. They want reward without the effort. They “love” the money, but don't want to earn it.

The root of their desire is evil mindedness. They may pretend to care, but only as a means of getting what they want. And so it is with Marxism, Judaism, Communism, and the present political force in this country including those who would be world dictators and a part of the global elite.

Some have found that it is easier to steal than to work for what they need. For example: Many of our governmental leaders pretend to be paternalistic. They believe they have the authority to take care of their family (country.) In order to do this, they have convinced the American people that they can and will take money from the people and then decide how best to care for the masses at large. They will decide where the money goes. Those who get some of the money are led to believe that they are being cared for. In truth, those doing the taking, whether global corporate conglomerates, wealthy entertainers, or sheltered bureaucrats and politicians really are using their slogans of care as a ruse to steal and they write laws to make it seem lawful.

If all the people tried to live by stealing then everyone would go hungry because no one would ever produce anything. So the simple concept of communism is that one should make a living by stealing instead of working.

Communism has a special appeal to non-whites because they are naturally non-producers. This is not to say that they will not work. This does not mean they are unable to work hard and to put forth effort and receive their just reward. But as a whole, and history proves it out, they are non-productive to the extent that they are able to create and sustain a civilized society that can care for families. Note: I did not say they do not work, I said they do not produce. Civilization is the evidence of producing.

No, they need to be cared for. Given the opportunity, they find it easier to be taken care of than to take care of others. In a multi racial society this means that white people end up taking care of non-whites and this appears to be the natural order of things.

However, a multi-racial society is not natural – only the consequences are.

In a homogenous white Christian nation, true patriarchy can exist and its benefits will be felt by all. Women and children will be loved, protected, and esteemed. Women will not react negatively to a system that values and respects them for both their mothering capabilities and their wisdom and insight.

Children will not feel the need to rebel against parents who focus themselves upon the family unit and cherish and rule it well. Employers will not exploit their workers and workers will be grateful for their opportunity. Under a true white Christian Patriarchy based upon racial unity, everyone will strive to be productive in society as a part of being a good Christian. When society as a whole functions in such a manner, it leaves open the possibility for benevolent charity to those who really need it. This is Biblical Patriarchy. Communism is counterfeit patriarchy. END

Not "Spiritual" Enough

Recently the accusation was made (not directly to me) that my sermons are not "spiritual" enough. I am not exactly sure what is meant by the term "spiritual," but as I understood the comment they meant that even though they also think race is extremely important, I still should talk more on "spiritual" matters. So let me make the following explanation.

I believe my calling as a minister is to encourage the spirit, strengthen the resolve and increase the faith of our people through the Scriptures and the spoken word. So that together we can fulfill the commandment to Love our God and to Love our People and thus become a spiritual people living in agreement with or pursuit of the purpose of God.

Let me say this more simply. My ministry is to the Sons and Daughter of Israel (white people) and help strengthen them to battle against the Satanic rebellion.
